

Dr. Mohammad Jetan is an assistant professor in the Faculty of Shari'ah in ANNU. He got his BA and MA in Religion Fundamentals from ANNU. His PhD is from University of Jordan in Honorable Hadith and its Sciences in 2014.

Dr. Jetan is the author of some books such as The Summary of Riyad As-Salihin (Rawd Al-Wa'ithin- Mukhtasar Riyad As-Salihin). He published tens of refereed papers in refereed journals as well as in refereed conferences on topics related to the honorable Hadith and the Holy Qur'an.

He participated in many conferences held in ANNU as well as in Jordan. He worked as a part-time lecturer in University of Jordan. He also worked as a teaching assistance in the faculty of Shari'ah in University of Jordan.

Dr. Jetan is well-versed in Human Development as he held so many workshops on courses related to this field such as time management, self-management, self-motivation, academic achievement, identifying capability, designing goals and finally mind maps.

He is a reliable trainer in leadership and self-development.

Between 2011-2013, he worked as a lecturer to teach Arabic for foreigners who speak other languages in The Arab Community College in Amman.